SERIOUSLY WOUNDS A YOUNG MAN WHO LIVES AT GUTHRIE.

Salem Resident Shot and Killed by the Husband of a Woman Who Figured in a Previous Murder Case.

GOOD OIL WELL NEAR DECATUR

ADAMS EXPRESS AGENT PREVENTS A ROBBERY AT LOGANSPORT.

Two Fatalities in a Logansport Railroad Yard Accident-Attempt to Kidnap a Girl at Elwood.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Pritchett, a resident of Guthrie, aged twenty-five, was seriously wounded early this morning by a would-be assassin. The tragedy occurred at Chapel Hill, fifteen miles southeast of Bloomington. The criminal escaped, and Pritchett is now at his home.

A mystery surrounds the attempted murder. Pritchett was one among many others attending a soldiers' reunion at Chapel Hill, and about daylight was walking along a road near by, when some unknown man hidden in a fence corner suddenly arose, and, taking a hasty aim, fired at Pritchett, the ball taking effect in the right hip. Pritchett fell to the ground and at the same time cried out: "You've shot the wrong man." The reply was. "I guess not," and the man who had fired the weapon escaped in the woods. Pritchett called for help, and later was taken to his home at Guthrie. He says he does not know who shot him, and cannot imagine any cause for the attempted mur-Reports are current, however, that the shooting is the result of a quarrrel over a girl. Pritchett may recover.

Shot His Man with Dried Beans.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SULLIVAN, Ind., Aug. 30.-A few days ago Oscar Oakes, a feeble-minded son of William Oakes, a farmer north of this city, Brucker; treasurer, P. M. Query; Sheriff, grew very abusive to his mother. There ne of the male members of the family at home, and Mrs. Oakes went to a neighbor's and got a young man named Esra Springer to go to her assistance. Springer dealt quite severely with Oakes and he became more docile. This afternoon Oakes secured a shotgun and loaded it with dried beans. Taking Springer by surprise, he fired the contents into his right side. The entire load was effective and Springer is in a precarious condition.

MURDER AT SALEM.

Township Assessor Shot by Man with Whose Wife He Was.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

SALEM, Ind., Aug. 30 .- John Davis, a farmer, was shot twice by Samuel Pavey, at the latter's home in this place, at 3 o'clock this morning, and died in forty-five minutes. Pavey has charged frequently and his wife arrested some months ago and taken to Bedford for trial, but Davis proved he was at Fredericksburg at the had been away from home recently, and He met Davis at the train Thursday evening and talked with him two hours over the matter. The Pavey woman claims that Pavey sent for Davis last evening to talk the matter over, and that Davis went to their home at 9 o'clock. Pavey talked a while and left and did not return until 3 o'clock, when he entered the door and fired two shots at Davis as the latter was attempting to pass out the door. One shot passed between the seventh and eighth ribs on the left side, lodging under the skin on the right side; the other was in the abdomen. Davis fell where he was shot, but was assisted to a bed, where he died soon after.

After the shooting Pavey ran out of the house and went down town. Sheriff Brown got word of it, went to Marshal Medlock's house and the two arrested Pavey. He refused to make any statement. Davis was the Republican township assessor of Washington township, elected in 1900. He was a farmer and operated and owned a thresher. He left a widow and seven children. The Pavey woman and her two daughters were recently implicated in the murder of an infant of Maggie Mallott. They escaped, but the Mallott woman was sent to the State Reformatory for ten

Well-to-Do Farmer Kills Himself. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., Aug. 30 .- In a fit of anger Jacob A. Jones, a well-to-do farmcity, committed suicide to-day by blowing off the top of his head with a shotgun. Ten years ago his daughter married Willlam Morris against her father's wishes. Domestic difficulty marred the happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Morris. A few weeks ago Morris eloped with another woman, leaving his wife and child destitute. Mrs. Morris sought the shelter of her father's roof. She and the child were taken in, but the father and daughter had several quarrels which ended in the farmer taking his own life.

TWO MEN KILLED.

eident at Logansport.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal, LOGANSPORT, Ind., Aug. 30 .- A Panhandle yard engine jumped the track at the Berkley-street crossing at 6:45 o'clock this morning, resulting in the instant death of Panhandle Conductor Charles W. Morris and Yard Telegraph Operator Emmett R. Runkle, and the serious injury of Switchman Charles Zauss. Engineer August Stoll

Switchman Vance Byers was slightly hurt. lar chain of unfortunate circumstances, gospel, yet I thought it right, not only to the upper yards to take a train out, when he was run down and struck by a hand- I am backed by my church, the good citicar. Runkle, Zauss and Byers had volun- zens of the village and my conscience." teered to take the injured man to the office of the company physicians and were riding of speech and action, always carnest in the on the pliot of the switch engine with the cause of morality and has the moral supjumped the track and joiled them off. Mor- a native of Georgia and has been in this pany, it now appears almost certain that about $5,000 to the good. The association ris and Runkle fell directly under the pilot | county but a few years. and were crushed to death. Zauss clung to the drawbar and was dragged a distance of about ten feet, and Byers was thrown to the side of the track. Morris was horribly mangled and Runkle badly crushed. Both are married and have children.

The point where the accident occurred has been the scene of several wrecks, engines having jumped the track at the same point many times.

Boy Injured at Rockport.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ROCKPORT, Ind., Aug. 30 .- Benno, the seventeen-year-old son of Simon Limburger, of this city, met with a peculiar accident which may prove fatal. He was diving with some other boys from a barge near the lower landing on the Ohio, and leaped into water only four feet deep. His head spinal column was wrenched between the shoulders, completely paralyzing his body from his arms down. The doctors see no hope for his recovery, as the spinal cord was injured.

Woman Burt in a Runaway.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAPORTE, Ind., Aug. 30.-Mr. and Mrs. William Dalstrom, living four miles west of | of those in charge. Laporte, figured in an exciting experience last night. While driving near town their | Church; address of welcome by Mayor J. horse was frightened by an automobile and | B. Williams, after introduction of speaker | dist Church at Denver, Miami county, to-ran away, the carriage was overturned and Mrs. Dalstrom was thrown out. She suffered the fracture of two ribs, others were W. C. Voak and James Minor. Later there and she suffered other injuries. Although | races and other sports. her condition is serious, it is thought she will recover. Her husband was practically

Little Girl Ate Rat Poison.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LINTON, Ind., Aug. 30.-Harrold, the three-year-old daughter of Ora Underwood, living on West Vincennes street, came very near dying last evening from an accidental dose of rat poison. Some of the family had threw it out in the yard to poison mice. The little girl, while playing, became hungry, and finding the bread ate it. In short time she became violently ill. A physician was summoned and put the child out of danger.

DARING ATTEMPT FOILED.

Adams Express Agent Routs Two Would-Be Robbers at Logansport.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., Aug. 30.-At 3:18 o'clock this morning a daring attempt was made to rob the depot office of the Adams Express Company, and but for the courage of Night Agent Morris J. Callahan, the attempt would have been successful. There was over $100,000 in cash in the company's safe which Callahan succeeded in protect-BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Aug. 30 .- Andrew ing. He fired three times at the robbers and they fired once at him, but the bullets failed to hit their mark. The express office is located across the tracks from the Panhandle passenger station, and the Louisville train had just pulled in and was standing on the tracks. Callahan had just placed the valuables taken from the train in the safe when he heard someone say "All right." He was in a stooping position behind the desk under which the safe is situated and when he heard the remark he stood up. He was confronted by a man who stepped in at the eight miles southeast of this place, yesterwarned him not to move. Callahan reached for his revolver on top of the desk when the robber fired, the bullet passing between flowed naturally at an estimate of ten barthe wall behind him.

Callahan fired at the robber, who ran and was joined by an accomplice, who had been | high into the air. A continuous stream of peeping in at a window at Callahan's back fled down a dark street and Callahan fired | first ten minutes. After a short time the two shots at them, but they disappeared.

CONVENTION AT WINAMAC.

to Conventions Selected.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WINAMAC, Ind., Aug. 30 .- Pulaski county Republicans in mass convention here today nominated the following ticket: For auditor, J. R. Hayworth; clerk, C. H.

Pulaski county's three delegates and Starke county's seven votes will nominate J. W. Nichols for judge in the Forty-fourth district. Senatorial delegates were chosen for the Cass and Pulaski county convention and representative delegates for the White and Pulaski convention. Representative A. L. Brick, of South Band, addressed the conthe state and national administrations.

Good Situation in Madison County. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ANDERSON, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The Republican county central committee was in session here this afternoon, there being sixty representative Republican workers from the various townships and cities of the county called together. Governor W. T. They made short addresses reviewing the during the last year that Davis was inti- situation and the work of the coming cammate with his (Pavey's) wife. He had Davis | paign. The best feeling was shown and here is a most enthusiastic determination to work out the organization into the best fighting political machine the county has ever known. The candidates were present and all are working together in the best spirit of harmony. The county chairman | days in which the streets of the city were and secretary, John Starr and E. M. Con-Pavey again charged they were together, rad, feel much encouraged over the out look and predict the county will be carried by majorities ranging from 1,500 to 2,000.

Grant County Democrats.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARION, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The Democrats of Grant and Howard counties held a convention in Marion to-day and nominated W D. Lett, of Marion, for the joint superior also held a county convention and nominated the following ticket: For Senator, Charles S. Hulley; representatives, Dr. Brose S. Horne and Charles E. Lawler; prosecuting attorney, Mark P. Turner; clerk, Hanford R. Miles; auditor, W. A. Leach; sheriff, E. J. Hall; surveyor, Johnson Boxell; coroner, Samuel Horne; com-missioners, George Love, I. M. Cox, A. J.

Cass County Republican Ticket.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOGANSPORT, Ind., Aug. 30.-The following ticket was nominated at the Cass county Republican convention to-day: For Representative, Frank J. Berndt; prose-Henry Tucker; sheriff, August Swanson State Senator Wolcott and Frederick Landis, congressional nominee, addressed the convention, and resolutions were adopted indorsing Senators Fairbanks and Bever just over the Michigan line east of this eridge and complimenting Senator Hanna.

WILL DEFEND HIMSELF.

Baptist Preacher Who Was Attacked by Whitecaps at Burney.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENSBURG, Ind., Aug. 30.-Rev. E. J. C. Dickens, the victim of the attempted "whitecapping" affair at Burney, was in this city to-day and stated to a representative of the Journal that he was not alarmed for his personal safety, as he was prepared Two Others Badly Hurt in a Yard Ac- to receive his midnight visitors should they conclude to make him another call. He says | tivity to-day, due to the seventeenth anthe trouble originated when the church officials recently adopted resolutions instructing him as pastor of the church to bring and buggies containing old and young beabout a reformation in regard to the continual desecration of the Sabbath in that

"In pursuance of these resolutions," he said, "and in obedience to the dictates of my conscience I preached earnestly on the subject, and when in earnest I choose strong language, and this is what offended and Fireman Cochran escaped injury and the violators. I took a revolver into my house after receiving their threatening notice, and while this action may seem to be The fatalities were occasioned by a singu- | indiscreet on the part of a preacher of the Conductor Morris had been on his way to have it ready, but to use it when necessary to protect myself and family from a mob. Mr. Dickens is a nervous, wiry man, quick injured man on their knees when the engine | port of every member of his church. He is | to authorized statements issued by the com-

LABOR DAY AT WABASH.

Gas Belt Celebration Will Be of the Most Imposing Character.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WABASH, Ind., Aug. 30.-Preparations | ing near the railroad according to plans | ting. She was a daughter of William S. are almost completed for a record-breaking celebration of Labor day by the unions of | concern will consent to move. the Indiana gas belt in this city next Monday. The committees appointed by the local organizations have been tireless in Special to the Indianapolis Journal. perfecting the arrangements, and a large sum of money, contributed by the working- | at the home of George Bisser, near Wolcott, men and merchants of the city, has enabled | while Mrs. Bisser was alone with her little the unions to proceed effectively.

The city will be ablaze with bunting early | She said she could give him two or three struck the bottom with full force and his | Monday morning, and the morning parade will be of the most imposing character, all he did not receive more, he struck her heav- heart trouble, aged sixty-four. He had of the principal business and residence liv in the face, knocking her down, but not been practicing medicine since 1878. streets being covered. Special trains are to stunning her. She arose quickly and went be run by all the railroads and the local into the house and got her baby and then traction lines have all their equipment | went out into the yard and screamed for ready for the transportation of the crowd. It is estimated that no fewer than 20,000 visitors will spend all or part of the day in Wabash, and preparations to properly entertain the throng are taxing the abilities

The programme includes the invocation by the Rev. F. M. Kemper, of the First M. E.

posened, one shoulder was badly wrenched | will be a palloon ascension, baseball, foot

PHILLIPS MURDER CASE.

State's Testimony Has Been Badly Shaken on Cross-Examination

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ROCKVILLE, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The prosecution had not finished the examination of its witnesses in the Phillips murder trial when court adjourned to-day. Much eviput the poison on a piece of bread and dence has been introduced as to threats made by Phillips seven or eight years ago against Markin, the man who was killed. A good deal of the testimony introduced has been severely shaken on cross-examination. All witnesses agree that there was a general disturbance in the saloon on Christmas day when the killing occurred. The state is endeavoring to prove that the defendant was wounded after Markin was killed, but as to this the witnesses have not positively testified. The trial will last at least another week.

Guilty of Felonous Shooting.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WINDFALL, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The jury in the trial of Fred Oberleas before the Tippecanoe Circuit Court, on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, returned a verdict last evening, finding the defendant guilty. The trouble grew out of a love affair between young Oberleas and the daughter of Farmer Alfred Orr, the prosecuting witness, whom the defendant

GEYSER WELL AT DECATUR.

It Flows Naturally at Two-Hour Periods-New Field Opened.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DECATUR, Ind., Aug. 30.-A big oil gusher came in on the John Brewer farm, door and who leveled a revolver at him and | day afternoon. The drillers were still at work when oil was struck. At first the well Callahan's left arm and side and entering | rels a day. After flowing at this rate for several hours, suddenly the oil was hurled oil was forced from the hole and it is estiwatching his movements. The two robbers | mated that 100 barrels flowed during the force of the flow diminished, but for two from the well.

At the end of two hours the flow subsided entirely and remained in this state for two hours, when the flow again noom menced and continued for a period of two hours. Since the first flow the gushes have maintained the same pressure. Great excitement prevails here as the field is a new one. The well was put down by the Decatur Oil and Gas Company.

FIGHT AGAINST SALOONS.

Sullivan County in a Fair Way to Be Dry Within a Few Months.

special to the Indianapolis Journal. SULLIVAN, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The fight in this county of the Anti-saloon League against the liquor interests is on with renewed vigor in Hamilton township. A revention. Resolutions were passed indorsing | monstrance has been filed against applicants for license, bearing 886 names. The saloon men have filed 142 withdrawals, but the temperance people claim a victory by a majority of 75. The publicans claim 42 ma-

Curry township has filed a remonstrance with a majority of 43. After next Saturday but three saloons will remain in this city, whereas the average number has been nine. If all signers remain intact the county will be "dry" within the next nine months.

CLOSE OF DELPHI CARNIVAL.

Military Company Clears Enough to Lift Its Armory Debt.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DELPHI, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The military carnival given here by Company L. Third Regiment, I. N. G., closed last night after four crowded from early in the day until late at night. This was Delphi's first carnival, and it was given under the auspices of the local militia company. The company will clear enough from the undertaking to lift the debt incurred in fitting up its armory

The companies from Monticello and Rens selaer participated yesterday, and with the as escort to the carnival queen and her attendants. A feature of yesterday's programme was the formal dedication of a cannon secured by Representative Landis from the Navy Department, mounted in the courthouse square and presented to the city and county. The gun was a part of the Socapa battery protecting the entrance to Santiago harbor, the battery which sunk the collier Merrimac.

GAS AT 25 CENTS.

Muncle and the Companies Agree or This Meter Rate.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The long and bitter contention over the gas question that has absorbed Muncie since early last winter bids fair to be definitely and amicably cutor, George W. Walkers; auditor, O. C. | adjusted at the Council meeting on Monday Gard; recorder, Charles Shaff; treasurer, night. Seven members of Council have agreed to vote for a 25-cent rate. Both gas would sell gas for illuminating purposes only after Oct. 1, but the Heat, Light and Power Company has agreed to acept a 25cent rate and sell gas for fuel. The Muncie Natural Gas Company has practically deeided to accept the compromise.

Expressions by leading citizens Saturday indicate that public sentiment will support Council in adopting a 25-cent rate. In an authorized interview A. L. Johnson, an official of the Muncie Natural Gas Company, said Saturday that he believed Muncie would have an ample supply of gas this winter to meet all demands.

Old Settlers at Parker.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PARKER, Ind., Aug. 30.-Parker City and Oak Grove were scenes of great acnual reunion of the old settlers of Randolph and Delaware counties. Carriages gan to arrive as early as 8 o'cleck. The forenoon was spent in renewing old acquaintances. After dinner President M. F. Wood called the meeting to order. Prayer was offered, after which Judge McCullough, of Indianapolis, made an address. Theodore Shockney, of Union City, also spoke. Short talks followed by the older persons in attendance. They recounted experiences and incidents of earlier days. Prizes were awarded to the oldest person present and two prizes, one each, to the man and woman who had been the longest continuous resident of either of the two

Will Be Removed to Anderson.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HAGERSTOWN, Ind., Aug. 30.-Contrary the Light Inspection Car Company will remove its factory to Anderson. The Commercial Club of that city offers such flattering inducements that they cannot be refused without sacrificing important interests. Just when the removal will be made winter. Anderson offers to put up a build-

Woman Struck by a Tramp.

MONON, Ind., Aug. 30.-A tramp appeared baby, and asked her for something to eat. biscuits, and after spreading them with butter, handed them to him. Angry because belp, whereupon the tramp fled. A search was made for him, but he was not found.

Will Dedicate His 104th Church. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KOKOMO, Ind., Aug. 30 .- Dr. W. D. Parr, this city, will dedicate a new $10,000 Methomorrow. This will make a total of 104 churches that Mr. Parr has dedicated in his thirteen years in the ministry. This he did in addition to his regular pastorial work. He also organized scores of new societies. In the 104 dedications Dr. Parr has raised the church debts in all cases. Since becoming general secretary his services as a church builder are in still greater

Christian Conference in Session.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PORTLAND, Ind., Aug. 30.-The regular sessions of the fifth meeting of the Eastern Indiana Christian Conference opened last night at the Salamnia Christian Church. two miles southeast of here, the meeting being largely attended. The opening session was given up to the general introduction of business and an address by the Rev. J. F. Burnett, of Muncie, secretary of the American Christian Convention. To-day the regular programme was taken up. There were short talks and sermons, and reports from the different churches. The sessions will continue over to-morrow, with a basket meeting in the afternoon. The Rev. I. V. D. R. Johnson is the conference president and the Rev. Homer B. Bosworth is secretary.

Church Changes at Elwood.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The Rev. J. W. Clevenger, for the past two years pastor of the Baptist Church in this city, has tendered his resignation to accept a call to the First Baptist Church at Marion. Mr. Clevenger came here from Seymour, and his work has been very successful. The Rev. J. F. Warner, paster of the North A-street Christian Church, will preach his farewell sermon Sunday, having accepted a call to the Seventeenth-street Christian Church at Indianapolis. Mr. Warner came to Elwood from Fort Recovery, O., and has increased the membership of his church from sixty to over three hundred.

Attempt to Kidnap a Girl.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELWOOD, Ind., Aug. 30 .- Citizens in the fashionable residence quarter on North C street are lying on watch every night for an unknown man who has been discovered several times peeping into the windows of residences, and if he is caught he will be filled with buckshot and explanations made afterward. Last night he entered the premises of Ed Leisure, a prominent citihours more a steady stream was ejected | zen, and made a forcible attempt to carry away a daughter of the household. She was rescued by a younger brother.

Laporte County Nominees.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAPORTE, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The Republicans of Laporte county held a large and enthusiastic convention in this city to-day. The following ticket was nominated: For prosecuting attorney, Andrew J. Pickey; representative, Dr. Robert B. Short; au ditor, Philo Q. Doran; treasurer, Lyman B. Ashton; sheriff, Phineas O. Smith; coroner, Dr. W. B. Hollenbeck; surveyor, Hiram Burner; commissioners, William Strutz, Robert Hanson and William Gielow.

Dedication at Time Appointed.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ROCKPORT, Ind., Aug. 30.-The controversy between the commissioners and citizens of Spencer county and the Lincoln Monument Association has been settled. Col. J. S. Wright has been appointed by Governor Durbin to oversee the preparation of the grounds, and the dedication will take place on Oct. 1, as announced. At the dedication all the members of the association will hold a meeting and settle on a plan for beautifying the grounds permanently.

Costly Barn Fire.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAPORTE, Ind., Aug. 30.-In the destruc tion by fire last night of a large barn of the Hossock farm, near Wilders, Laporte county, four head of horses, three calvefarm machinery, hay and grain wer burned. The origin is unknown. Nine horses were rescued from the burning structure. The loss is $2,000; insurance

Will Build a Glass Factory. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 30.-Nathan Meyer of the Pioneer hat works, this city, has agreed to erect an eight-pot glass works at Lafontaine by the middle of October. The citizens of that place, as a bonus, will furnish him the ground and buildings necessary. Mr. Meyer will employ at least seventy-five men at the outset, and will expand as the business requires.

Aged Minister Critically III. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The Rev R. D. Spellman, a superannuated Methodist minister of considerable note, who lives here, was stricken with appendicitis to-day and was removed to the hospital. Owing to his advanced age, eighty-nine, fears of fatal results make his family anxious. He preached over sixty years in eastern and northern Indiana.

Charges Against Bishop Wright.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HUNTINGTON, Ind., Aug. 30 .- A committee of the White River United Brethren Conference, in session in this city, appointed to investigate charges of insubordination and violation of the rules of the discipline filed against Bishop Wright, of Dayton, has submitted its report, which sustains the charges. The matter awaits final action by Good Price for His Hogs.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., Aug. 30 .- One of the finest lot of hogs shipped from Wayne county in recent years was raised by Milton Bowmaster, of East Germantown. He had 120 head, which he disposed of at $7.50 a hundred. The lot averaged 349 pounds, bringing an average of $26.17 a head, and a total of $3,141. The hogs were eighteen

Mr. Hanna Sues for Commissions. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 30 .- Robert B. Hanna to-day sued the Interstate Asphalt Company, using Kentucky rock asphalt, for $7,000 commission for services in securing contracts for paving streets in Wabash, Fort Wayne and Auburn, this being 10 per cent, of the total amount of the contracts. Richmond Fair This Week.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

RICHMOND, Ind., Aug. 30 .-- The Richmond fair will open next Tuesday. The prospects for it are of the best. It looks as if the field of horses will be exceptionally good. Richmond has a very fast mile Successful Darke County Fair.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENVILLE, O., Aug. 30.-The Darke county fair ended yesterday with receipts is out of debt. Indiana Obituary.

PORTLAND, Ind., Aug. 20 .- Mrs. Harry Throp died at her home on Vine street last evening and will be buried from the resiis not known, but in all likelihood before | dence of her father Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev. Fred Stovenour offliciasubmitted by the company, move all the Fleming, ex-court clerk of Jay county, and machinery and put it in place if the local a sister-in-law of Frank H. Snyder, exmayor of the city, president of the Commercial-Review Company and one of the stockholders of the Portland & Muncie Traction Company. SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Aug. 30.-Ernest Thompson died suddenly at his father's home, near Waldron, Shelby county, yesterday, of apoplexy. He was forty-five years old and was a graduate of the Columbia Law School at New York. * * Dr. J. Warren Howard died at the residence of his brother, F. M. Howard, at St. Paul, Shelby county, at 10 o'clock last night of RUSHVILLE, Ind., Aug. 30.-Henry A. Swinney, aged sixty-seven, north of town, died this morning at 7:30 o'clock of tetanus. He was born in Vermont, but moved to this State while a child. He was ill but services. Interment will be at Little Blue river, Sunday afternoon. FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 30 .- At Churubusco, across the county line, John Deck, a well-known farmer, fell dead from an little over a week. He left one brother.

At his request there will be no funeral

It must mean something

We submit this to your common sense.

-the 5-cent goods filled pure with Bondy & Lederer's growth of genuine Vuelta tobacco and wrapped with real Sumatra, full cured, (all "bitter" removed.) It costs $35 per M. The "quantity" combination of $17-per-M-goods gets all the support of the con-man type of dealer. He is the only kind of dealer you find holding back the Tom Keene. They all have it now, but the "white men of the business" are the ones who keep it in front.

There is more truth than sarcasm in this. It's mostly the narrow-minded dealer with cob-webs of cunning in his brain and probably fly-specks all over his "honor" who is controlled by the combination of cheap-goods factories. And it is only the smoker of blunted taste who is influenced by the prize package schemes necessary to sell such worthless cigars.

Back up a gamey fight of good tobacco against combinations and schemes. Patronize the white men dealers who keep good goods.

Smoke a Tom Keene along with any of that riff-raff stock. the difference and push a square deal along.

DANIEL STEWART CO.

DISTRIBUTERS TO DEALERS

INDIANAPOLIS

apple tree yesterday while picking fruit. Heart trouble was the cause. He was seventy-three years old.

SCOTTSBURG, Ind., Aug. 30 .- F. M. Garriott died at 3 o'clock this afternoon of paralysis after an illness of three years, aged about seventy-five. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. ROCKVILLE, Ind., Aug. 30.-Reuben Cox, aged fifty-four, one of the most prominent farmers in Parke county, died at his home in Florida township last night, after an extended illness.

Indiana Notes. HAGERSTOWN .- There has not been a vacant house in Hagerstown for months. Such a condition was never known to exist here before. Wherever there is a prospect of a house being vacated, it is spoken for weeks in advance. Employes of the Light Inspection Car Company, who have come here from other places, have found it impossible to secure houses and some of them have canceled their contract with the company on that account.

ELWOOD.-Newspaper distributers of Elwood, at a meeting held Friday night, formed the Elwood Newspaper Distributers' League, the object of which is the protection of its members against persons who take and refuse to pay for newspapers. Nearly every metropolitan newspaper sold in the city is represented, as well as the local papers, and it is expected that those still out will join within a week.

LAFAYETTE.-Secretary C. W. Travis, of the County Fair Association, has made public the entries for races which are to be held the first five days of next week. Never before in the history of county fairs here have prospects been so bright as this year. There will be numberless exhibits and many fast horses are entered in the races. WORTHINGTON .- The public schools of this place will open on Monday. Following are the teachers: Superintendent, W. B. Van Gorder, principal, Don A. Little; assistant, Miss Ellen Piel; Misses Eva Williams, Ethel Hays, Lena Padget, Nora McIntosh, Minnie Maxwell, Gertrude East, Estella Anderson and Mrs. Fannie Day-

PORTLAND.-Ground was broken on Saturday for the steam-heating plant for which a franchise was secured by B. G. Arthur, N. R. Griffith, S. A. D. Whipple and O. N. Eiler. This was done in response to an order from P. Ullen, of Marion, who directed that work be begun. The main building is to be of brick, 24 by 40 feet. MARION.-Plans are on foot for the erection of a new hospital in this city. Marion has an excellent private hospital, but it is the desire of many physicians and other citizens to have a public hospital. A subscription has been started to secure funds to establish a public institution. CRAWFORDSVILLE .- On the voting contest to determine who should be the queen of the Labor day parade, Cassie Neal won, having received 2,972 votes. The next was Hazel Clodfelter, with 1,527. The winner is employed at the match factory. FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 30 .- The man mountin is expelling high columns of cinkilled late Friday night by a street car on ders and fragments of rock.

Superior street was recognized Saturday afternoon by G. A. Reed, of South Whitley, as Isaac Campbell, Reed's former brother-in-law. Campbell was a farmhand. RICHMOND,-Prof. C. W. Hodgin, of Earlham College, who is the author of a text book on Indiana history and civil government, is now revising and rewriting it, paying special attention to local government. The book will contain 300 pages. WABASH.-General John Coburn, of Indianapolis, has been invited to deliver the principal speech on the occasion of the Wabash county old settlers' meeting on Sept. 36.

BOLD THEFT OF GEMS.

Tray of Diamonds Seized and Red Pepper Thrown in Jeweler's Eyes. CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 30 .- Early tonight a man entered the jewelry store of Charles E. Wilsdorf, on Payne avenue, and asked to see some diamonds. After the jeweler had placed a tray containing about $1,000 worth of the jewels on the counter, the man threw a handful of red pepper in the jeweler's eyes, grabbed the diamonds and escaped.

Mr. Wilsdorf, notwithstanding the fact that he was blinded by the pepper, grabbed a revolver and followed the man into the street, firing as he went. A crowd joined in the chase, but the robber eluded his pursuers. Later. Mr. Wilsdorf was found wandering helplessly about the street, and the physicians at the hospital to which he was taken, are of the opinion that his sight has been destroyed.

Man and Wife Murdered. GAINESVILLE, Fla., Aug. 30.-The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Britton Lewis, residing five miles south of Bronson, were found this morning on the floor of their home is no clew to the murderers.

School Teacher's Body Found. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 30 .- The body of Miss, Georgia Fields, formerly a scho teacher of this city, who disappeared from her home here about a week ago, was found in the Ohio river this morning. She was in bad health and it is supposed she committed suicide.

Alaskan Cable Working Again.

volcano at Masaya, Nicaragua, is again active. Heavy detonations are heard and the SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 30 .- News has been received via the steamer Cottage City that the cable between Skagway and Juneau is again in working order. Sergeant Brusk opened the cable for commercial dispatches at noon on Aug. 25.

Spouting Cinders and Stones. MANAGUA. Nicaragua, Aug. 30.-The

Irousers to Order at

Furniture, Carpets and Stoves POPULAR PRICES.

41 South Illinois Street.

ments sent anywhere for the asking.

Samples and self-measurement equip-

Keep your eyes on us for Fail Suits

Willig's Cash Furniture Store 141 West Washington Street.

by neighbors. The house had been pillaged, and Lewis and his wife murdered. There

Furniture, Carpets Stoves

W. H. MESSENGER 201 East Washington St.